The iSchool at Illinois advances a human-centered understanding of the design and management of information systems and services. Our interdisciplinary community is home to world-class faculty, outstanding students, top-tier research, and academic programs consistently ranked highly by U.S. News & World Report. Our researchers address the opportunities and challenges of the contemporary information society, and our graduates are leaders in the information professions.

BS in Information Sciences (on campus)
Become an information specialist.
• Design information systems and services.
• Organize and evaluate information in a variety of careers.
• Be competitive in the job market.
Sample careers include: Content Strategist, Database Manager, IT Analyst, and Technology and Support Specialist.

MS in Library and Information Science (on campus/online)
Earn the #1 degree in library and information science.
• Experience high-quality education at an affordable cost.
• Customize your degree based on your professional goals.
• Manage information in a variety of rewarding careers.
Sample careers include: Academic Librarian, Archivist, Information Architect, and IT Manager.

MS in Information Management (on campus)
Manage and analyze information solutions.
• Develop advanced skills in information management.
• Enjoy the flexibility of our STEM-designated program.
• Work in a range of employment settings.
Sample careers include: Data Analyst, Information Consultant, Social Media Analyst, and Director of Information Services.

MS in Bioinformatics—Information Sciences Concentration (on campus)
Manage and create systems for biological information.
• Benefit from an interdisciplinary education.
• Use technology to organize and evaluate information.
• Work in variety of cutting-edge biological specialties.
Sample careers include: Data scientist/Bioinformaticist, Bioinformatics Analyst, Biomarker Data Specialist.

PhD in Information Sciences (on campus)
Join our vibrant community of scholars.
• Join the top-ranked school in library and information science.
• Collaborate with world-class faculty.
• Prepare for a vibrant career in a range of settings.
Sample careers include: Research Scientist, Digital Asset Manager, Assistant Professor, and Research Consultant.

School Librarian Licensure (on campus/online)
Transform student learning.
• Create innovative and diverse learning environments.
• Inspire critical thinking and knowledge creation.
• Join the #1 program in services for children and youth and #3 in school library media.
Programs include: School Librarian, Technology Specialist, Licensures and Endorsements, and more.

Certificate of Advanced Study (on campus/online)
Expand your professional reach.
• Gain greater specialization in your chosen field.
• Engage with renowned faculty to expand your expertise.
• Enhance your analytical, technical, and problem-solving skills.
Specializations include: Digital Libraries, Youth Services, IT and Information Management, Reference and Instruction, and more.

Virtual Visit

ischool.illinois.edu
is-futurestudents@illinois.edu