iConference 2022: Global | Virtual | Personal https://ischools.org/iConference/

iConference 2022 will take place Feb. 28 – Mar. 4, with research presentations and a collective exploration of the conference theme Information for a Better World: Shaping the Global Future. Our event is co-hosted by iSchools at University College Dublin, Kyushu University, and the University of Texas at Austin. The conference’s online format provides truly global access, with lower participant costs and a minimized carbon footprint.

Program Agenda
View our advance schedule to learn about the program. Can’t make it to a late-night session? Our Media Library will provide presentation videos on demand. View Preliminary Agenda

Making the Virtual More Personal
We’re bringing traditional networking and personal interaction to our virtual conference. This includes Round Table discussion groups initiated by any participant, an Event Feed that serves as a private social media channel for participants, and provocative contests, games, and interactive elements that foster networking and engagement. Learn more

Keynote Speakers
Our slate of keynote speakers reflects the global diversity of our field: Shigeo Sugimoto, Emeritus Professor, University of Tsukuba; Helen Margetts, Professor, University of Oxford; and Batya Friedman, Professor, University of Washington. Learn more

Register to Attend
iConference 2022 registration is now open, with low fees and special rates for students and first-time attendees. Register now

Join Us!
Join the cohort of international scholars and professionals taking part in iConference 2022. The event will feature nearly 100 peer-reviewed research presentations and numerous workshops, panels and other interactive sessions. Check out the program schedule for details.

As a special benefit of registration, you will be offered the exclusive opportunity of joining the iSchools as an individual member for one year, at no cost or obligation.

The iConference is an annual presentation of the iSchools organization.