

Call for Participation: iConference 2018

<http://ischools.org/the-conference>

The iConference is an annual gathering of scholars, researchers and professionals who share an interest in the critical information issues of contemporary society. The theme of this first-ever UK-based iConference is “Transforming Digital Worlds” and the aim is to bring together thinkers and leaders from academia, industry and not-for-profit organisations, to discuss emerging challenges and potential solutions for information and data management in our rapidly changing world.
